GOSSIP OF THE RACETRACE

atominum pade to protect his feet, his se no stage of the care did he begin to run up to Madden's expectations francistion, however ran to form and won a number of his place and show wagers for prominent speculators the thought the price against him, I to t.

Heaven Light, herause of his well known conditions for a heavy track, was played across the heards, the Millerites going to him in a next. A hot paddock tip ass Mir Lynnewood. the was feeling an nell in his stall before the race that he kirked out a counte of panels his heets. Juck McGinnis, Frank Far ell. Jesse Lewischn and others played Sir y nnewcood, but the start killed his chances arthage was backed from 20 to 15 by the run for the first time in 1984 were Tom Maren, Bersan, Louisette, Elkword, Exile twice: Firenzi, Strathmeath, Lamplighter, Gelindo, Dorlan, Rey El Santa Anita, Reputal, Ornament, The Friar, Previous, Her-hert, Gunfire, McChosney, Laughnawaga, Wild Mint and Fine Cloth. In 1900 Ethelhert and Jack Point ran a dead heat

Because of the heavy rain and the muddy track Frank J. Farrell decided to add Jim affney to the Autumn Maiden Stakes. The olt got in with 122 pounds and as he was meeting a rather ordinary lot it looked like a other for him. Accordingly Farrell, the Sullivans, Dave Johnson, who has shaved off his mustache, Jesse Lewisohn, ex-Alder man Gaffney and others bet thousands of dollars on the Golden Garter colt. Even W. E. Phillips, the trainer of Fred Cook Awrence P. Daley, who won at 30 to 1, bet of Gaffney, as he did not think his own colt had a chance to beat the Farrell racer. When were inclined to censure Knapp for easing his mount up at the last furlong pole, while thers were surprised that the Farrell jocker did not go to the stewards with a protest o foul, as Daley appeared to bump (infiney at the sixteenth pole. But Farrell said after the race that his colt had been fairly beaten and that there were no excuses for him. The of this event, as there was a big plunge or Restigouche and Desirous, straight and place Previous winners of the Autumn Maider Stakes were Economist, The Sage, Silver II. Sunny Slope, Lady Marian, Duke of Middle burgh, Conig. King Lief, Arsene, Parisienne Ormonde's Right, Woodsaw, Blair Athol and Electioneer.

There were numerous bookmakers who said after the steeplechase that they would never do business on a jumping race again They labored under the belief that elle's victory was the result of a "shoo in Homoselle opened at 15 to 1, but the smart insiders, in spite of the fact that Paprika looked like a cinch, backed the Wadsworth mare down to 3 to 1 at the last moment. It was estimated that about $40,000 was paid out on Homoselle while few of the hig het tors took either Paprika or Judge White. The crowd roared with laughter when Pa-prika and Judge White fell together, and then rooted in vain for a tumble by Homoselle, which would have made the farce complete.

"Keator is at his best," was the tip in cir-culation before the first race and nearly all the wise men went to the old Charaxas gelding, who was backed from 3 to 11 to 5 at the moment. Emil Herz won a bunch on Keator's success, as did George Wheelock. Frank Farrell, Dave Johnson and others. R. F. Carman played Mark Anthony II. both ways and broke about even. There was a liberal play on Cressina to show, but Lady Anne and Golden Shore, both backed down in the price, burned up a fat bundle. Bill Daly's Listless for some reason was reduced from Plunger Charley Ellison made the ring guiver when Lancastrian came home with the coin in the fifth race. He waited until the price had gone up to 3 to 1, when he plastered the books with hig wagers, the Millerite following suit. Ellison is said to have wor nearly $25,000. Good Luck was well taker both ways, also Ocean Spray, who ran a distressingly bad race. Willie Shields handed out Holscher as a good thing, and some of the smartest players took the tip, only to kic themselves mentally when they saw the Lamplighter colt running last, as if he did not relish the task a bit. Brancas, who ran a Empire City, and Preston, who rode ther with much success, ran third in the race.

The day had been particularly hard for the talent without the blow which fell in the last race with the disqualification of R. T Wilson, Jr.'s. Sanguine. The Ornament col a game youngster, was the hottest kind of favorite. He was backed from 3 to 1 dow to 9 to 5 at the moment the field reached the post, hundreds of speculators taking him with the idea of getting out on the day. He was so much the best that he was never ex tended, but unfortunately he bumped int King Folly at the last sixteenth pole in such a way that bets were freely offered at ever money that the stewards would set him back His disqualification won a world of mone for the books, but at the start Wave Cres who was recently gelded, was liberally played by the Millerites, who set up a great yel when his number was placed on top. King Folly was taken three ways, but Martha Folly was taken three ways, but Jane, heavily backed straight and place swelled the winnings of the layers.

The stewards of the Jockey Club, acting upon the recommendation of the stewards of the recent Empire City meeting, announced yesterday that the license of Jockey L. Williams had been revoked. Williams was ac-cused of pulling several horses at Yonkers

He made the weight and the placing was not changed fuppe his face covered with blood, brought Paprika home for third money several minutes later. The fine case 11.

Although he was as good as left at the post Kentor, busked down to 3 to 2 favorite, was much the heat in the highweight handicap, at 43 furlongs, for Jack Martin persevered with him and going to the outside in the homestocks Kentor rushed on to victory, which he secured from R. F. Carman's Mark Anthony H. 7 to 2, by a half a length in 114 1-5. The latter had the same margin over Creating, 1 to 2, who with 14n pounds on her back look third place from Lady Anne, 4 to 1, by A head.

C. R. Ellison's Lancastrian, 5 to 2 favorite. A head C R Ellison's Lancastrian, 5 to 7 favorite, on the fifth race, at a mile and a holf on the grass. Miller rated him cleverly, and at the end he had a margin of four lengths over Good Luck, 4 to 1, who tired in the stretch, but heat Brancas, 12101, by a couple of lengths, floischer, 5 to 1, could not get up a gallop. The time was 234-255.

Although he was clearly the best, Sanguine, 2 to 1 favorite, was disqualified by the stewards after he had won the last race, for two-year-olds, of six furlongs, Futurity course. Sanguine had the race in hand, when he suddenly swerved and almost knocked King Folly, 6 to 1, to his knees at the sixteenth pole. The latter's pockey made a protest of foul, which was quickly allowed. This gave the race to the Newcastle Stable's Wave Crest, 7 to 2, with King Folly in the place and Martha Jane.

This sent the yachts to Sea Gate mark first, then to Fort Hamilton and then Benson-hurst. The first leg was windward, the second broad reach and the third a close reach. From the Bensonhurst mark to the finish was another beat. The tide was the first of the flood and each skipper tried his best to get some advantage from the tide during the day, and some succeeded.

day, and some succeeded.

They were sent away at 10.16 o'clock. The Gunda led across the line, followed by the Bensonhurst, M and F. Nereid and New Moon. The Gunda and Bensonhurst took the lee end of the line, and the Nereid and New Moon the windward end. The Nereid had the best of the start, and the M and F was in the next best position, while the Bensonhurst was the worst off. The Nereid and M and F made a close fight the threst mark and turned almost on even terms, with the Nereid on the M and F's weather quarter. It was almost before the wind to Fort Hamilton, and the Nereid, M. and F and Gunda made a very close run and turned in the order named.

made a very close run and turned in the order named.

Reaching to the next mark the Gunda went by the Nereid, and the M and F took second place, but lost it before the mark was reached. Then it was windward work again, the Bensonhurst, the last in the fleet, held well in toward. Coney Island Creek and found a soft spot and more tide, while those that held out on the port tack got a better wind. The Gunda still kept her lead on the wind and Nereid gave her a hot chase. At the Sea Gate mark on the second round the times were: Gunda, 11.22.30; Nereid, 11.22.36; M and F. 11.23.07; New Moon, 11.24.20; Bensonhurst, 11.25.08.

F. 11 23:30; New Moon, 11 24:20; Bensonhurst, 11 25:38.

Spinnakers were carried for part of the next leg on each yacht, and while the order at the Fort Hamilton mark was not changed the Nereid had closed up on the Gunda and the M and F was nearer to the Nereid. They gybed at this mark and reached on to the Bensonhurst mark, and there again the order was the same. The Gunda hauled quickly on the wind, while Skipper Robert tacked the Nereid slowly, and in this way the Gunda lost headway while the Nereid slowly forged ahead and passed the Gunda to windward. Then these two yachts had as pretty a fight as has been seen in long time, and in the end the Nereid won the race by I minute 18 seconds. The New Moon on the wind passed the M and F, and the Bensonhurst too at one time crossed that yacht, but the M and F succeeded in beating the Bensonhurst, which yacht finished last, which is something new there is seconds. LARNED'S EAST JERSEY CUP. Orange Tennis Player Takes Five Set Match From Kelley.

The cup for men's singles in the East Jersey Lawn Tennis Association passed yesterday to Edwin P. Larned of the Orange Lawn Tennis Club, a younger brother of William A. Larned, the national singles champion. Larned earned his year of tenure of the trophy by defeating Carleton C. Kelley, the champion of the West Side Tennis Club, after a cleverly played match which went thorough test of the endurance and gameness of the winner, as he came from the rear with the first two sets registered against him and won by force of clever playing.

In the men's doubles Miles S. Charlock and William B. Cragin, Jr., won a place in the final round and next Saturday will play off for the cups. Mrs. Pouch and Miss Marie Wagner have qualified for the final of the women's singles. The summary:

Nereid Wins the Most Interesting Contest of the Series.

It was the Nereid's turn to win a Lipton cup race, and she succeeded yesterday morning in the race sailed under the auspices of the trescent Athletic Club and started off the Alantic Yacht Club House. It was not an ideal morning for a race. Rain, however, did not dampen the ardor of the owners of five of the yachts and they furnished what was declared to be the most interesingly contested race of the season. It was almost anybody's race until the last few moments, and then the Nereid won by a small margin.

The wind was southwest and it held steady throughout the race, only softening a little toward the end. Course No. 1 was selected.

This sent the yachts to Sea Gate mark first,

SHRUBB WALKS AWAY FROM PROS. Great English Runner Wins Three Events at Caledonian Games.

Alfre | Shrub', the great English professional distance runner, was the great attraction at the annual games of the New York Caledonian Club, held at Washington Park. Maspeth, yesterday. A crowd of 10,000 per-sons gathered to see Shrubb show his speed and incidentally to w tch the "kilties" and to hear the mad skirl of their pipes in such piercing tunes as "Highland Laddie." "The Campbells Are comin" and "Within a Mile of Edinbro' Town." Shrubb scored a triple win, or without turning a hair he r mped win, for without turning a hair he r mped away with the mile, three and five. In this last event he gave a real exhibition of what he can do, for he beat Bob Hallen, one of the best American professionals, by nearly two laps. The track was in hything but good condition, but Shrubb's time was 25 minutes 37 seconds. Along with the money for the three rists Shrubb, it was said, receive a bonus of $100.

L. W. Gibbs of Buffalo won the all around professional championship, the prize for which was $50. Several ex-amateurs appeared at the meet, including J. W. B. Tewksbury, formerly of the University of Pennsylvania and a few years ago one of the best sprinters in America. He figured in several events, but did not score a first.

at Celtle Park. Con Leahy, the Olympic English and Irish champion high jumper, gave the crowd at Celtic Park yesterday a chance to see his ability to clear the willow. Off a sodden turf the springy Irishman bounded over 6 feet 1 inch in an exhibition and the crowd yelled. Leahy is on his way to the championship at Jamestown next Saturday.

J. B. Taylor, the colored runner from the University of Pennsylvania, appeared in the 500 yardrace, showing his usual ability to travel fast. He won the race easily and his time was 60 1-5 seconds, which was rather good for the soft track. Second and third men respectively to the colored runner were J.

respectively to the colored runner were J. Devere of the Pastime A. C., who had 15 yards and Charles Bacon of the Irish A. A. C., who was in receipt of 10 yards.

Matt McGrath of the New York A. C. was not there to oppose John Flanagan in the 16 pounds hammer. McGrath has been suffering from a cold in the back for several days. He is sure to be on hand for the Jamestown meet.

There was a 150 yard scratch invitation, and a splendid race resulted between W.D. Eaton of the Boston A. A. and W. J. Keating of the Irish A. A. C. Keating won from the Bostonian by a small margin.
